SENATE

TUESDAY, May 2, 1933.

The Senate met at 11.00 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Our Father and our God, we thank Thee this morning for this beautiful world in which we live, and we thank Thee for this marvelous Commonwealth, its history and its traditions. We ask Thee that Thou wouldst bring us back to the traditions and history of our fathers. Help us to realize that one of the chief reasons and conditions which we are facing today in this country is due to the fact that the young men and women do not know and do not love this great country as those who know what these hills and valleys mean. Guide us back to the right path. Lead us in it as Thou didst lead Israel of old. We ask in Thy Name for the sake of our sons and daughters. Amen.

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Mercer the object of recalling a bill, which is the corporation code sponsored by myself. I would like to ask him the reason for recalling this bill from the Governor.

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, there are three words in this bill that are objectionable that I would like to have deleted.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, would the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Fay, mind telling us the words in the bill he would like to have deleted.

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, I have no objection.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to hear them very much.

Mr. Fay. Mr. President, these three words—in the corporation code it is proposed to use certain words in corporation titles that are to be brought into being after July 3rd. These words are "federal," "national" and "United States."

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I thank the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Fay.

The PRESIDENT. I must oppose the adoption of this resolution for recall for this reason: This bill known as the corporation code has been before this Legislature since the latter part of January or the fore part of February. It has been gone over and amended by the bar of the state, and has finally been approved by a great many of the leading members of the bar of Pennsylvania. The bill does have in it a prohibition against the use of the words in corporate titles of "United States," "federal" or "national," but it does not interfere with any corporation already chartered or registered under present laws. I understand that the United States Steel Company, or the United States Steel Corporation, if that is the title, objects to this bill. There is no reason why they should have any objection, for by the terms of this bill they are allowed to register in Pennsylvania. I do not see why we should pass legislation for the United States Steel Company. They have not up to the present seen fit to register in Pennsylvania. If they should desire to do so, they have until July 3rd to register in Pennsylvania. I think the time has come when we should stop permitting corporations to use the words "United States," "national" or "federal" in their charters. But it does not prohibit corporations using the word to register prior to July 1, 1933. I remember in Philadelphia they had a bank recently called the United States Bank and Trust Company or something like that, and unfortunately there were a great many people who, by reason of the fact that it was called "United States," got the impression that that was a bank backed and guaranteed by the Federal Government; and I hope the Senate will vote down the resolution. I do not know of any reason why the United States Steel Company, that has not up to this date seen fit to register in Pennsylvania, should be given this unusual consideration to the detriment of the people of the Commonwealth in the future. As I said before, there is no reason for it. If they want to register, they have the right to do so before July 3rd, and I ask the Senate to vote down this resolution.

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, the question of banking and incorporating banks using the words "United States," "federal" or "national" is taken care of in the banking code. They do not enter into this at all. These amendments were inserted in the bill at the last meeting. The words were inserted before the discussion. I do not know why they were inserted, and I have not been able to learn. I am told they were inserted at the instigation of a group of Philadelphia lawyers. They had a reason, no doubt, but so far I have not been able to discover it. We are suspicious of anything that only a Philadelphia lawyer can understand.

Mr. President, Pennsylvania is a great industrial state, made so by her great natural resources and legislation that fostered manufacturing and made it easy for legitimate business to carry on these industries, having thousands of people on their payrolls; and in normal times they pay out wages of hundreds of millions of dollars. They see a possible hindrance to the normal functioning of corporate industry in the bill as it now reads, and I think they should be heard. Mr. President, I do not know the responsible Philadelphia lawyers who inserted these amendments. I have no data as to what they are doing to increase the industrial development of our state. But I think we should pause before we do anything that may in the future time hinder the natural development of our state.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

A division being called for, seven Senators voted in the affirmative and twenty-six Senators in the negative, whereupon the question was decided in the negative.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO REDUCTION OF SALARIES

Mr. WOODWARD offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Judiciary General.

In the Senate, May 2, 1933.

Whereas, The continuance of the economic depression has seriously affected the revenues of the State government and necessitates the greatest economy and reduction in State governmental costs during the next fiscal biennium in order that the budget may be balanced and the unemployed cared for; and

Whereas, The salaries paid to public officers and employes constitute an appreciable part of the cost of government; and

Whereas, The income of public officers and employes has not been affected by the depression to the same degree as that of persons employed in commerce and industry; therefore be it

Resolved (If the House of Representatives concur), That it is the sense of the General Assembly that the salary and compensation of all public officers and employes of the executive and legislative departments of the State government should be reduced during the next fiscal biennium beginning June 1, 1933, and that those officers and agencies charged with fixing of salaries and compensation of public employes should reduce all salaries and compensation in accordance with this resolution.

Resolved, That all public officers of the executive legislative departments of the State government whose salaries under the Constitution cannot be reduced during the terms for which they were respectively elected or appointed, be requested and urged to agree voluntarily to accept reductions in their salaries and to authorize requisitions for salaries during the next fiscal biennium to be drawn in reduced amounts in accordance with the terms of this resolution.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the General Assembly that such reductions in salaries and compensation for the fiscal biennium beginning June 1, 1933 should be in accordance with the following standards:

(a) Salaries and compensation amounting to $1,000 and less should not be reduced;

(b) Salaries and compensation amounting to more than $1,000 per annum or for a stated period, should be reduced by an amount equal to 10% of the difference between the present salary or compensation and the sum of $1,000.

(c) That no per diem compensation amounting to $2.40 per day or less shall be reduced, and per diem compensation amounting to more than $2.40 per day should be reduced by an amount equal to 10% of the difference between the present per diem compensation and $2.40.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. PETHICK, Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. PETHICK, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported as committed, the following resolution, which was laid on the table:

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO STUDENTS AT UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

In the Senate, May 1, 1933.

Students in some class or department at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, an outstanding institution of learning in the Nation, have voted, by a substantial majority that they will "under no circumstances bear arms or go to war." This appears from an editorial in the Philadelphia Record of Wednesday, April 26, 1933. Said editorial in part is as follows, to wit: "Penn students have voted, 322 to 222, that they will 'under no circumstances bear arms or go to war.'"

Without qualifications of any kind they admit willingness to see the Nation that has furnished them with the advantages and opportunities they now enjoy, overrun and destroyed by enemies.

They renounce any obligation to defend the parents who gave them existence, or keep safe and inviolate the homes in which they were reared.

They have freely received all they now possess because of the patriotism, bravery, courage and unselfishness of those who thought less of self and more of service to others; and their lives have been made secure through the heroic sacrifices of those in whose veins flowed no yellow blood and who knew no fear.

We hesitate to believe that so many of the future citizens of this Nation would so easily admit a cowardice and a lack of patriotism that is both astounding and degrading, but prefer to believe that the vote was only an expression of immature and child-like judgment.

The public expression of these students should not, however, go unnoticed, and if any among those who voted that in "no case" would they bear arms, are now beneficiaries of the Commonwealth to whom they have publicly renounced allegiance then such benefits should be withdrawn and bestowed upon other more appreciative of the benefits of government and more willing to defend it when endangered, therefore be it

Resolved, That an effort be made at once by the proper officials of the University of Pennsylvania to ascertain if any of those who voted against the honorable defense of home and country are now enjoying a scholarship in that institution through the benevolence of the Commonwealth, and, if any are so found, that the Senator who awarded such scholarship shall forthwith recall the same and award it to one more worthy, and be it

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be at once forwarded by the Secretary of the Senate to the trustees of the University of Pennsylvania, with the request that the Senate be furnished with the names of those who denied home and country by voting against the defense of either, and be it further

Resolved, That immediately upon the receipt of any information containing the names of these students so voting, that the Secretary of the Senate advise the Senators at whose request such scholarships were awarded, and that thereafter the scholarships of such non-patriots shall be withdrawn by such Senators.

Shapiro,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1264 (House Bill No. 1248), as follows:

An Act authorizing the publication of legal and official advertising and notices in Sunday newspapers of general circulation in cities of the first class and counties of the third and fourth class only

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That hereafter in cities of the first class and counties of the third and fourth class any Sunday newspaper of general circulation shall be deemed a proper newspaper for the publication of legal and official advertisements and notices required by law to be published in any newspaper or newspapers of general circulation

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendmnets made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend title, page 1, line 4 of tilte, by inserting before the word "third" the word "seecond"; also section 1, page 1, line 5, by inserting before the word "third" the word: "second."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, this little bill looks very harmless, but it certainly is inconsistent, on our part, to preach economy in government and pass a bill of this nature. There are a lot of Sunday newspapers that are published entirely for the advertising they receive. This bill is in their interest, and ought to be voted down in the interests of economy; because it is absolutely unnecessary to publish local notices in these mushroom Sunday newspapers. If you want to save money, here is the chance.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, there may be some mushroom Sunday newspapers in Philadelphia, but in Luzerne County there is a very splendid Sunday newspaper; and I see no reason, Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, why that Sunday newspaper in my community should be discriminated against. It does not say "They shall publish" but "They may publish" legal advertisements in them; and I think they are entitled to support as well as anybody else. I hope the Senators will vote for it.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I move that it be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RECESS

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for fifteen minutes.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

ADMINISTRATION OF OATH OF OFFICE TO HONORABLE FRANK E. BALDWIN AUDITOR GENERAL ELECT

The PRESIDENT. (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, among the newly elected Senators that came to this Senate in 1909 was Frank E. Baldwin, of Potter county—twenty-four years ago. Senator Baldwin came to this Senate peculiarly well equipped for the work on hand. Lawyer, business man, manufacturer, he brought with him a wide experience in all kinds of practical things, and coupled with a genial personality and courtesy he soon won for himself recognition and respect among the members of this body, and later as the years went by, he had won state-wide popularity—a recognition which has resulted in his being elected to the office of Auditor General of this Commonwealth last autumn. He will be inducted into that office today, and his colleagues, former Senators in this body, feel that it would be fitting and proper if he were to take the oath of office on the rostrum of this Senate, where he has served so long and well.

Therefore, I move that a committee of four Senators be appointed to conduct Auditor General Elect Baldwin to the rostrum of this Senate for that purpose.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I take great pleasure in seconding the motion made by the Senator from Lancaster, Mr. Homsher. Senator Baldwin was a member of this Senate for many, many years. He was here when I came in 1911, and I esteem it a great honor to have the pleasure of seconding the motion, and ask for its immediate adoption.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I also esteem it a great honor to second this motion, and also am happy that I am here to be one of the old guard who served so many years with Senator Baldwin; and I want to say to the Senators and to the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that they are extremely fortunate in having selected a man of the caliber of Senator Baldwin. I well recall his activities as Chairman of the Committee on Finance in the years gone by, when the sunshine was over all the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and there was a rainbow over every home and every citizen was riding in a golden chariot with a steed of steel, not knowing what might be in store for us in the present time. I can well recall Senator Baldwin in that Finance Committee when many of us thought that he was a reactionary. Many of us went so far as to think he was a fogy in his ideas, that he was not modern, that he was not up to date. But he stood by stalwartly and firmly, and blocked many a piece of legislation which, if it had gone on the statute books of Pennsylvania, we would be in a sad plight today. Senator Baldwin in the performance of his duties as Chairman of that Finance Committee cared nothing as to who was the Governor of Pennsylvania. He cared less who had charge of the political activities in this State. All he saw before him was duty, duty, in its fullest extent; and he foresaw more than any of us, with a vision that looked years and years ahead of all of us, that we were working our way into a sad financial condition in Pennsylvania. If we had more Baldwins, we would have less adversity. And it is my extreme pleasure and satisfaction and gratitude to be here to second this motion and to say to Frank E. Baldwin that the citizenship of Pennsylvania will never be able to repay him for his valiant services in the past.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has the great honor and pleasure of naming Senators Buckman and Salus, former Presidents Pro Tempore of the Senate, and Senators Homsher and Boyd to conduct Senator Baldwin to the rostrum of the Senate.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I move that Honorable Robert I. Lewis, President Judge of Potter County, be invited to administer the oath of office to Honorable Frank E. Baldwin, Auditor General Elect.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has great pleasure now in presenting to you Honorable Frank E. Baldwin, Auditor General Elect of Pennsylvania, and Judge Robert I. Lewis, of Potter County, who will administer the oath to the Auditor General Elect.

The oath of office was then administered to the Auditor General Elect.

The PRESIDENT. Members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen. This is a very happy moment for me to have the privilege of welcoming back home our good friend and co-worker in the Senate, the Honorable Frank E. Baldwin, of Potter County. In the time that I have had the honor to preside over this body I have had many pleasant personal contacts with the Senators, and none more so than that of the gentleman I am about to introduce to you. We have missed the wisdom of his judgment during this session, but we are glad now to have him back officially at the Capitol where we can call him into counsel and have him sit in on legislation that comes before us.

I have the honor to present to you the Auditor General of the Commonwealth, Honorable Frank E. Baldwin.

Mr. BALDWIN. Lieutenant Governor, ladies and gentlemen and many, many old frends. It is indeed a surprise to me today to see this large number of friends present I am flattered that so many of those of my acquaintances have thought it worth while to come here to see me inducted into office and I want to take this opportunity to tell you friends something of how I appreciate of the usage that I have received at your hands and how anxious I shall be to show that I am worthy of the confidence and friendship which you have bestowed. In this audience here today I see many of my friends of more than a quarter of a century. I have from my own Senatorial district many of those who began supporting me twenty-five years ago, in my first term for the Senate, and those friends have been supporting me ever since. They were just as loyal when I was a candidate for the sixth term as they were when I was first elected, in 1908, and may I say to you that they were equally enthusiastic and loyal at the last primary and election when I was a candidate on the State ticket. I owe very much to my friends and may I say that one of the most consoling things, that I value most, is the fact of having retained the confidence of friends during all these years.

In assuming the office of Auditor General it is needless for me to say that I will attempt to give you a business administration, an economical administration, and as good as it is possible for me to give. If I can make my administration as good as any of those that have preceded me, or even better, it will be my ambition to do so. I do not need to add that I shall expect those that are working in our department to render a real service to the Commonwealth. It has always been my belief that men and women who are working for the Commonwealth ought to feel as anxious to render one hundred per cent. service as they could for any other employer, and that is what I expect and what I know that I will receive from the employees of the Audtior General's Department.

I regret that at this time there are so many splendidly qualified men and women that are out of employment in our State and over our whole country. I hope and trust that there will be an improvement in business conditions which will begin and continue until every man and woman has honest employment so that again they may be a happy, contented and prosperous people. I am in favor of that which has been advocated so much in our State, and in every other State, of an efficient economical administration of the affairs that will be in keeping with the conditions through which we are passing.

Now I want also to say to you members of the Senate, you men, one I guess that was in the Senate back in 1908, when I entered, the Dean of the Senate, my splendid friend John Homsher, and from that time to this I have found in the make-up of the Senate of Pennsylvania, it seems to me, the highest class of men that could be found in any legislative body in this whole country, and I have always been thoroughly convinced that the Senate of Pennsylvania was the best legislative body in this whole country, and I think so today, and for that reason, may I say, that I feel especially honored in having you, my friends, invite me to your Chamber to receive my oath of office.

I am told that down in the Auditor General's Department my friends have placed a lot of flowers. I would like to have those who come to Harrisburg, and others, drop in there and look it over and see the place where I intend to function at my very best for the next four years. The Senate of Pennsylvania always has my love and regard and when I go into a fiscal office I can say to you men of the Senate that my thoughts and the place where perhaps I like the best, from a political standpoint, is the Senate of Pennsylvania.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, the purpose of reconsidering the passage of this bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, for the purpose of requesting that the bill be referred back to committee.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, for what purpose?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I think it should be considered from this point of view, because I do not think the bill is a good bill, for this reason, because it provides that any insurance company other than life insurance companies may carry on its books bonds of less value than par, and carry them on their books at par for any period. I do not think the Senate should put itself in the position of authorizing any insurance company to carry bonds on its books which may have an intrinsic value of fifty dollars, a market value of twenty-five dollars, at a hundred dollars par without the opportunity being given to anybody to examine the real value of the securities.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, may I ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, to what committee he will move to have the bill recommitted?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, to the Committee on Insurance, where it came from.

And the question recurring,

It was agreed to.

LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU TO MAKE A STUDY CONCERNING UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE AND REPORT AT NEXT SESSION OF LEGISLATURE

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Insurance:

In the House of Representatives, May 1, 1933.

The stability of government and the happiness and prosperity of the people of the Nation depends upon the opportunity of those people to earn a livelihood.

Deprived of that opportunity, people who have no employment become a charge upon government and lose their self-respect.

The Commonwealth cannot long sustain the constantly increasing drain upon its finances made necessary by the vast amount of money expended for relief.

It becomes most evident to those who have studied existing conditions that one solution of present ills is the adoption of a system that will make work more certain by providing for the payment of insurance to those thrown out of employment through no fault of their own; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Legislative Reference Bureau is hereby requested to make a careful and thorough study of the question of unemployment insurance, of the systems now in operation, and of those proposed, and to draft a bill for presentation at the next session of the Legislature.

That the said Legislative Reference Bureau shall, in complying with the request contained in this resolution, confer and consult with the Governor, the Attorney General, the Secretary of the Department of Labor and Industry, and with the State Chamber of Commerce, and the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor, in order to get the benefit of all views and opinions relating to the question it is hereby requested to study.

That in order to provide the Legislative Reference Bureau with the funds necessary in order to properly and full comply with the request made by this resolution, an item in the sum of two thousand dollars is hereby directed to be inserted in the General Appropriation Bill for that purpose.

CONGRESS REQUESTED TO USE THE PORT OF PHILADELPHIA FOR ITS NEW SHIP BUILDING PROJECT

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations:

In the House of Representatives, May 1, 1933.

Whereas, Under the new administration of the Honorable Franklin Delano Roosevelt, there will eventually be undertaken the working out of a ship-building program for the United States Navy; and

Whereas, In the past the banks of the Delaware River have been noted as the greatest ship-building center in the United States; and

Whereas, The port of Philadelphia includes the Philadelphia Navy Yard and the William Cramp Ship and Engine Building Company; and

Whereas, The William Cramp Ship and Engine Building Company in the past turned out all kinds of ships from large passenger and merchant ships to battle ships, cruisers, gunboats and destroyers; and

Whereas, According to the Philadelphia Inquirer of October 11, 1917, the William Cramp Ship and Engine Building Company was one of the six ship yards authorized by the United States Government to help carry out the War Department's program of building 787 vessels of all types; and

Whereas, In the course of this project, the William Cramp Ship and Engine Building Company employed 6,500 men with additional employes added as the construction increased; and

Whereas, The strategic location of the city of Philadelphia, to both the coal and iron mines and the steel mills of Pennsylvania by rail, and its easy accessibility to the sea, by the Delaware River, makes this city the most accessible and the most logical place for industry of this type; and

Whereas, Due to the slowing down of this, the greatest of Philadelphia's industries, many people have been thrown out of employment; and

Whereas, The United States Navy Department is contemplating increasing the strength of the Navy, and it would be in keeping with the past record of construction of Philadelphia that many of the vessels which will be constructed in the naval program should be constructed in that port, thereby giving employment to thousands of skilled mechanics of that industry and improving conditions to others by increasing employment, and adding to the buying power of the citizens of Philadelphia; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania respectfully urge the Navy Department of the United States to select the port of Philadelphia for the construction of the major part of its new program.

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be forwarded by the Chief Clerk to the Secretary of the Navy of the United States.

ESTABLISHMENT OF APPROPRIATE EXERCISES IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS ON FLAG DAY

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Education:

In the House of Representatives, April 20. 1933.

On the fourteenth day of June, 1777, the Congress of the United States, by resolution, enacted that "the flag of the United States be thirteen stripes, alternating red and white, and that the Union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

Patriotic citizens and various organizations have for many years been observing that day as Flag Day, and by holding and fostering the holding of services at which love of flag and country were emphasized in addresses, have endeavored to inculcate into the minds and hearts of future citizens a sincere devotion to our flag and the country for which it stands.

A true regard and respect for our flag and the law it symbolizes is the basis of true patriotism without which the Nation cannot long endure.

The teaching to the youth of our country of the origin, development and meaning of the flag, of what it stands for and what it typifies is more important than any other teaching; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That this Legislature hereby suggests to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the holding in every public school in the Commonwealth of Flag Day exercises on an appropriate day in each year to be selected by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

That it is further suggested the Department of Public Instruction prepare and submit to the board of school directors of each school district within the Commowealth an appropriate program best suited to the various grades with suggestions as to how such programs can best be rendered, with the idea of developing in each pupil a proper realization of the meaning of our flag and an idealization of all it symbolizes; and

That a copy of this resolution be forthwith forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House to the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REED. Mr. President and members of the Senate, an article appeared in the Philadelphia Bulletin of last evening which I think requires explanation. The article reads:

"METHODISTS HEAR PINCHOT ASSAILED

"Speaker at Preachers Meeting Calls Him 'Insincere' in Signing Sunday Ball Bill

"Governor Pinchot was charged with being 'an insincere political strategist' in an address today at the Methodist Episcopal Preachers' meeting.

"The charge was made by the Rev. B. Smith Stull, chairman of the Committee on Sabbath Observance. The preachers met in the Wesley Building, 17th and Arch sts.

"'The thought that struck me in reading Governor Pinchot's statement on why he signed the Sunday baseball bill was the insincerity of his remarks,' said Mr. Stull.

"'He says he is opposed to a commercialized Sabbath, and yet he signs a bill that permits professional baseball on Sunday.

"'He had previously said and reiterated in letters the pledge that he would do nothing to harm the Christian Sabbath. The Governor says he is not interested politically. I doubt the accuracy of that statement.

"'The Governor has in the back of his mind another job, and he thought that by signing this bill he could help build up his political organization, looking toward the future job.

"'I am convinced of the Governor's insincerity. He says that few Sunday schools meet in the afternoon and that therefore Sunday sports in the afternoon will not interfere with Sunday school. The trouble is that the Governor does not go to church and does not know what he is talking about.'"

My purpose in reading this item is to deny an inaccurate statement therein, and to rise to the defense of Governor Pinchot. For the past two years very frequently the Governor and I have attended the same church, and it happens to be a Methodist Church. He has walked in the right aisle and I have walked in the left, and therefore we have never sat in the same pew; but I think it is most unfortunate that at this Methodist preachers' meeting in the City of Philadelphia the Governor was charged with not going to church, and I want to say that that statement is not correct.

OBSERVANCE OF FLAG DAY IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SORDONI offered the following resolution which was read as follows and referred to the Committee on Education.

In the Senate, May 2, 1933.

For many years patriotic citizens and various organizations have been observing June 14 as Flag Day because, on that day, in the year 1777, the Congress of the United States, by resolution, enacted that "the flag of the United States be thirteen stripes, alternating red and white, and that the Union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

The holding of meetings and exercises at which love of flag and country are emphasized in addresses tend to inculcate into the minds and hearts of future citizens a sincere devotion to our flag and the country for which it stands. The Nation cannot long endure without a true regard and respect for our flag and the law it symbolizes which is the basis of true patriotism. The history of the origin, development and meaning of the flag, of what it stands for and what it typifies should be taught to the youth of the Nation, and it is the first duty of this Legislature to assist in making such teaching possible in our schools; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That this Legislature recommends to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the propriety and advisability of holding in every public school in the Commonwealth of flag exercises on an appropriate day in each year to be selected by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

That it is further suggested the Department of Public Instruction, with the idea of developing in each pupil in the public schools a proper realization of the meaning of our flag and an idealization of all it symbolizes, shall suggest to the teachers of the various public schools of the Commonwealth the holding of proper exercises on the day so selected and assist such teachers in the preparation of programs therefor best suited to their respective grades; and

That a copy of this resolution be forthwith forwarded by the Secretary of the Senate to the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George F. Conner, offered the following prayer:

Almighty and everliving God, our Heavenly Father, as we stand at the threshold of another day, we are conscious of fleeting time. How swiftly the days merge into weeks and the weeks into months. The time of our sojourn on Capitol Hill has been filled with intense activity. Much remains to be accomplished ere this Legislature shall have become history. We humbly pray for Divine guidance that we may not lose our way amid bewildering doubt and confusion.

We need Thy spirit O God, in our National and State affairs. We need Thee in this and every other parliament of man. We need Thee in government, in economics, in law, in education in life. May we forget the accidents of birth, race and creed, and with loins girt for the struggle, be one for all, and all for one.

We invoke Thy blessing upon the Legislators and Administrators of our Commonwealth. Theirs is the duty of curing the social and economic ills of Pennsylvania's millions; but before this noble end can be achieved there must be mutual trust and confidence, based upon insights of mutual understanding and assurances of genuine good will.

Bind Thy servants together in high endeavor, and syncronize their powers for the common good of the anxious millions throughout the State. Amen.

RULES COMMITTEE:
GROVER C. TALBOT,
A. J. WHITE HUTTON,
JOSEPH G. STEEDLE.
THOS. B. WILSON,

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment to the resolution?

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

That the orders of the day submitted by the Rules Committee be amended by adding thereto the following:

That a resolution to discharge the Committee on Labor from further consideration of House Bill 237, entitled "An act to amend section 301 of the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 736), entitled "Workmen's Compensation Act of 1915" Extending Said Act to Occupational Diseases Contracted in the Course of Employment" which was referred to the Committee on Labor on January 18, 1933, and has been in the hands of the said committee more than ten days, be made a special order of business for 11.30 o'clock a. m.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is an amendment to fix a special time for the consideration of a resolution to discharge the Committee on Labor from further consideration of House Bill No. 237, which is the occupational disease compensation amendment.

I wish to call the attention of the members of the House to the fact that the Committee on Labor has not met since early in February. All efforts to get this committee to meet by numerous members of the committee have been in vain.

There are many, many bills in this committee in which the members of this House are very much interested but the chairman of the committee has absolutely refused to call a meeting.

This particular bill has been in that committee since January 18th, certainly sufficient time for it to have been carefully considered.

It provides for compensation to those persons who are disabled by reason of occupational diseases. In other words, it extends the compensation act to those persons who get an occupational disease in addition to those who are injured by external violence, which is what is now covered by the present law.

There are many persons who are afflicted by lead poisoning in the paint industry and various other chemical industries where the persons inhale gas or fumes and acquire an occupational disease therefrom which greatly shortens their lives and disables them. Under the present law they are unprotected and receive no compensation. So I urge the members of the House to vote for this amendment, which will give us a chance at the time fixed to consider the resolution to discharge this committee, which has not met for three months and refuses to meet.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The ayes and nays were required by Mr. Hoopes and Mrs. Wilson.

Mr. HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

RESOLUTION

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE TO STUDY OLD AGE PENSIONS AND UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE

Mr. TURNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules.

In the House of Representatives, May 2, 1933.

Whereas, Bills have been presented at this session of the Legislature to amend the Constitution to permit the enactment of laws to provide assistance to the aged and also bills to provide for unemployment insurance; and

Whereas, The economic depression which has been growing steadily for a period of more than three years has resulted in constantly decreasing revenue of business and government, and it is apparent that additional burdens cannot be added unless the effect on business and government is known, and the ways and means of raising the revenues to carry out such laws are carefully considered and analyzed and equitably applied; and

Whereas, It is apparent that the United States and other countries are now going through a period of great economic change, the results of which cannot be forecast at this time; and

Whereas, The states of the United States are in a different position than that occupied by European countries, since burdens added to business in one state may result in the shifting of that business over to other states where similar burdens are not imposed, while in European countries such laws can be made to apply to the entire country; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint three members of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint four members of the House, who together shall constitute a joint legislative committee, whose duty it shall be to study the laws of other states and countries relating to old age pensions and unemployment insurance, the experience of such states and countries, the feasibility and advisability of adopting old age pension and unemployment insurance laws in this Commonwealth, ways and means of financing such systems in case the committee reports favorable, to make a study of the problems of unemployment relief generally and of such other matters in relation thereto as the committee deems advisable;

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 26, 1933.

Whereas, Various bills have been introduced seeking to further regulate the transportation of passengers and freight by motor vehicles; and

Whereas The correct and equitable solution of this important question cannot be solved by hastily considered legislation, or by the lone action of one state without harm to its own citizens through the breaking of reciprocal relations between states; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint a committee of seven Members of the House, one of whom shall be the Speaker, whose duty it shall be to study and prepare legislation relating to and regulating the size, weight, height and length of motor vehicles for the transportation of passengers and freight which shall be permitted in the interests of the public safety, and the problems involved in the transportation of passengers and freight by motor vehicles;

Resolved, That the committee constituted by this resolution shall make report to the Legislature at its next session.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

RESOLUTION No. 73

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 73, Printer's No. 1015.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 20, 1933.

On the fourteenth day of June one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven the Congress of the United States by resolution enacted that "the flag of the United States be thirteen stripes alternating red and white and that the Union be thirteen stars white in a blue field representing a new constellation"

Patriotic citizens and various organizations have for many years been observing that day as Flag Day and by holding and fostering the holding of services at which love of flag and country were emphasized in addresses have endeavored to inculcate into the minds and hearts of future citizens a sincere devotion to our flag and the country for which it stands

A true regard and respect for our flag and the law it symbolizes is the basis of true patriotism without which the Nation cannot long endure

The teaching to the youth of our country of the origin development and meaning of the flag or what it stands for and what it typifies is more important than any other teaching therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That this Legislature hereby suggests to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the holding in every public school in the Commonwealth of Flag Day exercises on an appropriate day in each year to be selected by the Superintendent of Public Instruction

That it is further suggested the Department of Public Instruction prepare and submit to the board of school directors of each school district within the Commonwealth an appropriate program best suited to the various grades with suggestions as to how programs can best be rendered with the idea of developing in each pupil a proper realization of the meaning of our flag and an idealization of all it symbolizes and

That a copy of this resolution be forthwith forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House to the Superintendent of Public Instruction

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker, here about two or three weeks ago we had a flag bill. What relation does this resolution have to that flag bill.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Hough, desire to interrogate the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes?

Mr. HOUGH. I do, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RHODES. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker, what relation does this resolution have to that bill?

Mr .RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not think that this resolution has any particular relationship to the bill to which the gentleman from Allegheny refers.

This is merely a resolution suggesting some action upon the part of the Superintendent of Public Instruction to set aside some day when specific instruction may be given relative to the meaning of our flag in our public schools.

This same resolution passed the Senate the other day, came over to the House and was defeated by virtue of the fact that nobody was paying any attention to just what it was all about. It was for that reason that I introduced a resolution in the House, so that it may again be submitted to the Senate, where it has already passed.

Mr. HOUGH. I do not want you fellows to think that I am unpatriotic, but Mr. Rhodes seems to have the natural quality of grabbing on to something that some one else has, and that is the reason that I raised the point.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I resent the insinuation of the gentleman from Allegheny. This was a resolution that was introduced over in the Senate. It passed the Senate and came over into the House and was defeated because nobody replied when the resolution was read and when it was put to a vote. I am introducing this resolution because of the request of the people who sponsored it in the Senate.

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I do not think it is necessary to have a fight with the gentleman over the action that he has taken, but he might have come to me in a different way the other day when he moved to recommit some things I was interested in, and I want the House to know how he stands here.

On the question recurring ,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The resolution was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION No. 84

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 84, Printer's No. 1104.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 1, 1933.

The stability of government and the happiness and prosperity of the people of the Nation depends upon the opportunity of those people to earn a livelihood

Deprived of that opportunity people who have no employment become a charge upon government and lose their self respect

The Commonwealth cannot long sustain the constantly increasing drain upon its finances made necessary by the vast amount of money expended for relief

It becomes most evident to those who have studied existing conditions that one solution of present ills is the adoption of a system that will make work more certain by providing for the payment of insurance to those thrown out of employment through no fault of their own therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the Legislative Reference Bureau is hereby requested to make a careful and thorough study of the question of unemployment insurance of the systems now in operation and of those proposed and to draft a bill for presentation at the next session of the Legislature

That the said Legislative Reference Bureau shall in complying with the request contained in this resolution confer and consult with the Governor the Attorney General the Secretary of the Department of Labor and Industry and with the State Chamber of Commerce and the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor in order to get the benefit of all views and opinions relating to the question it is hereby requested to study

That in order to provide the Legislative Reference Bureau with the funds necessary in order to properly and fully comply with the request made by this resolution an item in the sum of two thousand dollars is hereby directed to be inserted in the General Appropriation Bill for that purpose

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. RHODES. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia state whether or not there are several similar resolutions pending, one of which was just introduced this morning by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, is there another resolution?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I understand that this morning the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, introduced a similar resolution, which was more comprehensive than this one. It includes not only unemployment insurance but it includes also old age pensions and likewise old age relief. I was just wondering whether or not his resolution was not much more extensive than this particular resolution.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman think that there is any need to study the question of old age pensions?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I am not dicussing that feature. I am merely stating that the resolution, as I understood it this morning, contains as introduced by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there may be other resolutions carrying old age pensions along with unemployment insurance, but does this House think there is any need to study old age pensions? Has not the House studied and voted on the subject for the past ten years. Do we need to have old age pensions studied? This is merely for unemployment insurance and I ask the House to vote in favor of the resolution.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I arise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, will state his point of order.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, this resolution carries a specific appropriation of $2000.00. It has not been referred to the Committee on Appropriations and is therefore improperly before the House.

The SPEAKER. On the point of order raised by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, the Chair will for his information read as follows: "That in order to provide the Legislative Reference Bureau with the funds necessary in order to properly and fully comply with the request made by this resolution an item in the sum of two thousand dollars is hereby directed to be inserted in the general appropriation bill for that purpose."

The Chair is of the opinion that this resolution does not make an appropriation but makes a direction to the House to insert an item in the general appropriation bill. Whether this item will be so inserted in the bill is a matter for the House to decide when the general appropriation bill comes before it for consideration.

Therefore, the Chair is of the opinion, and so rules, that the point of order is not well taken because the resolution itself does not appropriate the sum of two thousand dollars.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The resolution was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION No. 86

Mr. CANNON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 86, Printer's No. 1106.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 1, 1933.

Whereas Under the new administration of the Honorable Franklin Delano Roosevelt there will eventually be undertaken the working out of a ship-buildng program for the United States Navy and

Whereas In the past the banks of the Delaware River have been noted as the greatest ship-building center in the United States and

Whereas The port of Philadelphia includes the Philadelphia Navy Yard and the William Cramp Ship and Engine Building Company and

Whereas The William Cramp Ship and Engine Building Company in the past turned out all kinds of ships from large passenger and merchant ships to battle ships cruisers gunboats and destroyers and Whereas According to the Philadelphia Inquirer of October eleventh one thousand nine hundred and seventeen the William Cramp Ship and Engine Building Company was one of the six ship yards authorized by the United States government to help carry out the War Department's program of building seven hundred and eighty-seven vessels of all types and

Whereas In the course of this project the William Cramp Ship and Engine Building Company employed six thousand five hundred men with additional employes added as the construction increased and

Whereas The strageic location of the city of Philadelphia to both the coal and iron mines and the steel mills of Pennsylvania by rail and its easy accessibility to the sea by the Delaware River makes this city the most accessible and the most logical place for industry of this type and

Whereas Due to the slowing down of this the greatest of Philadelphia's industries many people have been thrown out of employment and

Whereas The United States Navy Department is contemplating increasing the strength of the Navy and it would be in keeping with the past record of construction of Philadelphia that many of the vessels which will be constructed in the naval program should be constructed in that port thereby giving employment to thousands of skilled mechanics of that industry and improving conditions to others by increasing employment and adding to the buying power of the citizens of Philadelphia therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania respectfully urge the Navy Department of the United States to select the port of Philadelphia for the construction of the major part of its new program

Resolved That copies of this resolution be forwarded by the Chief Clerk to the Secretary of the Navy of the United States

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

STATEMENT BY MR. McCREARY

Mr. McCREARY asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to get the unanimous consent of the members of this House to introduce a resolution and a bill. In explanation let me say that it is an emergency measure. It concerns every county in this state and I hope you will give the unanimous consent to introduce this bill.

The SPEAKER. Are there objections to the introduction of the bill at this time? The Chair hears none and the bill will be filed with the bill clerk.

RESOLUTION

CONCERNING SHERIFF SALES AND PROVIDING FOR THE STAYING OF CERTAIN ONES IN THE SHERIFFS HANDS.

Mr. McCREARY offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules:

In the House of Representatives, May 2, 1933.

Whereas, The great number of sheriff's sales of both real and personal property during the present period of unemployment and financial depression is causing untold hardships affecting the public welfare; and no opportunity to recoup is afforded oppressed debtors; and

Whereas, Sheriffs' sales are pending in various counties and no provision of law exists to stay such sales until financial conditions become normal, therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Senate and the House of Representatives hereby authorize the several courts of common pleas of the several counties of this Commonwealth to stay and adjourn until a date not later than Saturday, November 4, 1933, the execution of all writs of fieri facias, levari facias, venditioni exponas and all other writs requiring the levy and seizure of lands and tenements or personal property now in the hands of such sheriffs, or hereafter issued at any time prior to Saturday, November 4, 1933, which under existing law are required to be fully executed or returned before said date;

Resolved, That the General Assembly hereby declares its purpose forthwith to enact suitable legislation more fully to effectuate this resolution; to validate all writs stayed, executed and returned in accordance with the provisions of this resolution and to relieve all sheriffs of the several counties of this Commonwealth from all liability for complying with this resolution; and to further provide that all such writs which have been heretofore advertised and posted in accordance with the provisions of existing law shall not be required to be re-advertised or re-posted, but the original advertising and posting shall be deemed sufficient compliance with law to effectuate the lawful execution and return of such writs as provided by this resolution;

Resolved, That this resolution shall be effective immediately upon its approval by the Governor.

STATEMENT BY MR. HERMANSEN

Mr. HERMANSEN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not propose to take up very much of your time, but it is my purpose at this time to call the attention of the House to the fact that last week we endorsed the principle involved in the forty-four hour week for women and children and up to this time we have heard nothing from the committee that holds that measure.

When that resolution went through the House it received the support of one hundred and sixty members of the House as compared with the eighteen or sixteen that were opposed to it.

In order to be consistent and to appear so before the public one of two things must be done in my opinion; either the committee must respect the wishes of this House or the Committee on Rules must give us permission, or make provisions for us, that will enable us to dismiss that committee from further service.

Inasmuch as the time is growing short I feel that it is imperative that some action should be taken in this matter not later than tomorrow.

Conditions have developed throughout the State that prove to the satisfaction of nearly everyone that the social structure of the state, the industrial structure of it, is in a very bad condition, and I feel very strongly convinced that the time is here and our opportunity is now to make some adjustment that is going to prevent us from going back to conditions similar to those that were endured throughout the Dark Ages.

Only recently in Allentown a strike of the children there revealed the fact that some children were working for as low as thirty cents a day. These measures are fundamental in purpose. They do not threaten to bankrupt industry. They are stabilizing in practice and in effect and I think it is very important that this House realize the seriousness of doing something in this respect.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman will be spread upon the Journal.

PERMISSION FOR COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION OF HOUSE

Mr. SOWERS asked and obtained unanimous consent for the Committee on Judiciary Special to meet during the session of the House in the room to the left of the rostrum.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2359 (Senate Bill No. 1425), entitled:

An Act to further amend part of section one of the act, approved the thirteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Act number eighteen-A, Appropriation Acts of one thousand nine hundred thirty-one), entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Property and Supplies for the acquisition of land and buildings for the Commonwealth, and the erection and construction of new buildings and additions, alterations or improvements to and replacement of new or existing buildings of the Commonwealth, including fixtures and heating or sewerage systems and service lines for the accommodation of buildings," by extending the scope for the appropriation made to the Department of Property and Supplies for the erection and construction of buildings at the State Industrial Home for Women at Muncy.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2361 (Senate Bill No. 1388), entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 177), entitled

"An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards, and commissions shall be determined," by adding a new section providing for the reimbursement of the General Fund by the special operating funds for services rendered by the Department of Property and Supplies, and for space occupied in the Capitol buildings by departments, boards and commissions supported from the operating funds.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I desire to register my protest against this bill, Senate Bill No. 1388. This bill pretends to put into the special fund and take out of this fund some of its money to pay for rent, light and heat. It seems to me that there is an attitude trying to be put over on the public that the State is rendering an unusual favor to these special funds in giving them office room with light and heat when just the opposite is true.

Let us take the game fund. When we who desire to go hunting make application for our licenses we have to pay a fee of $2.00. The County Treasurers are getting regular fee of ten cents on each license. The next seventy-five cents of that fee is taken from that money and used to purchase land for the State. Approximately four hundred thousand dollars a year the hunters are paying for land of which the State is the owner. The hunters do not own this State forest land. It is the property of the taxpayers, a permanent contribution by the hunters to the State.

Then take the motor license fund; the same condition holds true there. The State is furnishing the buildings but the motorists are paying to the State as a permanent contribution millions of dollars every ear. The State owns the roads, the improved roads, the motorists does not own them, the motorists pays for them and we believe they have no moral right at least to take money out of this fund.

I believe the least that the State can do for the great contribution these special funds make to the State is to furnish them office space and heat and light for their services. The Game Fund contributing at least four hundred thousand dollars a year and the motorists millions of dollars a year to the taxpayers of Pennsylvania. I believe we would be doing the proper thing by voting this bill down.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this House has already approved a number of measures which were submitted by the Joint Legislative Committee, which has studied the question of State finance and State economy for some time, involving the very question that is now before you.

We have approved a bill which would relieve the General Fund of the burden imposed upon it for services rendered to the Workmen's Compensation Fund. We have approved a bill which would do the same thing with the Banking Fund and we have approved a bill which would do the same thing with the Motor License Fund.

We have defeated two bills that involve, respectively, the Fish Fund and the Game Fund. Without the adoption of the two bills relating to the Fish Fund and the Game Fund this measure will not be operative sofar as concerns those two funds. If you adopt this measure it will become operative insofar as concerns the Motor License Fund, the Workmen's Compensation and the Banking Fund.

On whether or not you pass this bill depends the question of whether or not the General Fund will be relieved of a burden of about three quarters of a million dollars. This is an opportunity to demonstrate a step in the right direction, towards economy in State finances.

The bill should have the approval of this House.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I belive in economy and I believe in honest economy, but I can't for the life of me see where this bill is going to economize any thing within this State. The sportsmen of the State of Pennsylvania support this Game Fund solely by themselves, and for every dollar and ninety cents that the sportsmen contribute to the State that dollar and ninety cents earns approximately six or seven dollars, in that it provides work for people. The hunters purchase hunting supplies, pay for lodging and pay for guides. In other words, it is a source of revenue for a lot of people in the rural sections, and if you are going to rob this fund that is contributed by the sportsmen alone or the hunters you are going possibly to deprive some of these people that are making a living of the income they receive from the sportsmen. I ask the members of the House to vote this bill down.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the remarks of the gentleman preceding me lead me to the conclusion that what I have said has been misunderstood, and sa that there may be no misunderstanding of what I did previously say, I want to repeat that if this bill is passed it will not affect the Fish Fund nor the Game Fund. It will affect only the Motor License Fund, the Banking Department Fund and the State Workmens' Insurance Fund; nothing more and nothing less.

It has been stated here a moment ago that the motorists of the Commonwealth make a contribution to the Commonwealth. No one will deny that, but the answer is that every dollar that the motorists contribute to the Commonwealth's treasury is spent exclusively for the exclusive use of the motorists. The General Fund does not receive any benefit from any fund deposited in the State Treasury either for motor licenses or gasoline taxes.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. There seems still to be some doubt in the minds of the members that this does not apply to the Game Fund. Can you take the bill and read from it the language that you believe exempts it?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, the answer to the inquiry of the gentleman from Delaware is this; without special bills, separate bills, authorizing that either the Fish Fund or the Game Fund be made to bear the auditing cost, the State Treasurer's services and those services that are rendered by the Department of Property and Supplies for heat, light and power, this bill would not be effective so far as concerns those funds.

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. McELWEE filed the following reasons for his vote on House Bill No. 2375 (Senate Bill No. 1450):

First: If this beer is the wholesome, helpful and healthful thing that its friends claim it to be, and the one thing that will bring back prosperity, inspire hope, and insure happiness, it seems a shame to place any obstructions in its abundant flow.

Second: If it is non-intoxicating and on a par with all other non-intoxicating drinks, and the raising of revenue is the only motive for this legislation, then why single out these liquids (Even the friends of these bills, in unguarded moments, call them liquors) and discriminate against them? Why not make the tax apply to all "soft" drinks, and get more revenue?

Third: We understand that Congress did not say in words that this stuff is non-intoxicating and that by that cute (we use the word "cute" when we refer to babies and other animate objects having cunning but not intellect) little omission they hope to get their law past the Supreme Court; for even a controlled Congress knows that, if this liquor is intoxicating, their pet law is in violation of the Federal Constitution and void. The only logical position to take to save the law of Congress, if this stuff is intoxicating, is to say that it is within the power of Congress to define what is intoxicating and what is not intoxicating, and this they have failed to do. It is hard to think, and as yet I decline to think, that the Supreme Court of the United States will indulge in word juggling, in lieu of logic, in order to sustain this law, just because Congress did not have the courage of its convictions and rise to the occasion and solemnly say that that is non-intoxicating which it and everyone else knows full well is intoxicating. The day long since has passed when either the lawmaking bodies or the courts are not called before the bar of public intelligence, and if either or both are condemned at that bar, the responsibility must fall where it belongs.

Fourth: If this liquor is intoxicating and makes men and women drunk; and "control" is necessary because it is dangerous, and, like all other booze, destroys health, happiness, home and self-respect, and bars from Heaven; but we must do this thing because we must have the money, then why stop with this measure? If we know that it is wrong but must do it so as not to "lose ten thousand dollars a day which we need to relieve the unemployed" then why not license robbery for one-half of the swag, or allow the murderer to have the estate of his victim and be immune from the law if he divides his ill-gotten gain fifty-fifty with the Commonwealth? Revenue laws of this latter kind would yield dollars where beer and its companion evils would not yield doughnuts. Besides, such laws would have the further quality (Touted as a virtue by some disordered minds) of being a sure way to "soak the rich." I have had many friends, some of them the very best friends I ever had or ever will have, who got drunk, very drunk, and spewed all over everything in opportune places and in inopportune places, and I never saw any of them throw up a brass rail, or a green door, or a plate glass mirror. They all did throw up alcohol. I knew that many of them got it off the side-board at home or out of the black bottle in the back office. I conclude that it was the alcohol that changed wise men into drunks, and not the time, nor the place, nor the surroundings in which they drank it.

Fifth: If the gangster was so much bigger than the government that the government was helpless in his hands, when the "drys" wanted the law enforced, it is hard to understand how that same government can enforce the law against the same gangster simply because the "wets" want it done.

I decline to vote for any of this legislation because no matter what we do in temporizing with this thing, it will be wrong, and, like Banquo's ghost will return to haunt us.

Mr. O'CONNOR filed the following reasons for his vote on House Bill No. 2375 (Senate Bill No. 1450):

I vote "no" on this Bill because I think it the worst and most deceptive Bill passed by the 1933 Session of the Legislature.

This Bill, if signed by the Governor, will subject our Courts to the political machinations of the County Treasurers, and the "Great Cause" which His Excellency, Governor Pinchot, pretends to defend, will be debauched by this Bill.

The Governor, in his veto message intimated there was too close relation between members of the Special Commission Considering Beer Legislation and the brewers of Pennsylvania. However, a careful reading of this Bill, which it is reported the Governor will sign, makes one important change relative to brewers. It reduces their license fee from $1000 a year to $100 a year.

By the terms of this Bill, certain retailers and dispensers will pay more license annually than a brewer pays for his permit.

This Bill will do irreparable injury to persons who have been in business for years but who do not have 300 square feet of floor space. It is the greatest shield for bootleggers and hijackers ever enacted.

Its title is deceptive; it proposes to regulate and restrain, but a careful reading discloses that if approved in its present form this proposal is all baloney.

It makes Judges of the County Treasurers, a function for which they have no training and will give those who possess judicial minds and training, jurisdiction, only after dissatisfaction has been created or politics played.

It makes no provision whatever for the ones who need most consideration in this Commonwealth, the poor, who should be provided with facilities for securing a glass of beer for a nickel and a comfortable and welcome place to drink it.

Mr. SOWERS filed the following reasons for his vote on House Bill No. 2375, Senate Bill No. 1450.

I feel that under the circumstances I should file my reasons for voting on S. B. 1450. The Governor's publicly announced objection to H. B. 1681 was the placing of the licensing power in the Judges. He announced his willingness to approve H. B. 1681 if County Treasurers were substituted for Judges. The sponsors of H. B. 1681 did not believe his "bolony" and requested his amendments in writing. His amendments turned out to be a request to substitute a new bill for the Conference Committee's report.

This new bill appeared to the Conference Committee as intended to create disorder and intemperate drinking and bring about a condition of affairs in the Commonwealth that would ultimately cause the defeat of the repeal of the 18th Amendment.

The sponsors of H. B. 1681 stand for the repeal of the 18th Amendment and desire nothing to be done which will defeat that purpose.

The sponsors wanted beer licenses granted by some power that had discretion and experience to use it, and cared little whether that power be Judges, Commissions, or what-not if it measured up to the standard of Judges. They wanted licenses granted according to the fitness of the person and the place and reasonable restrictions to substitute temperate for intemperate drinking of liquor and to restrict the right of sale and to withdraw it from those who would only attract the idle, the dissolute and the immoral and retain the benefit of our experience which demonstrated that places so conducted inevitably degenerated into a school for the promotion of immorality and drunkenness and desired to recreate the old taproom where no allurement was adopted to invite and detain the frequenter and induce an over indulgence in beverage They wanted to save all the advantages that came to the Commonwealth as a result of the Brooks High License Law and the Court decisions under it and did not want to lose the advantage of fifty years' experience and turn the Commonwealth back to a condition that existed prior to 1887, when beer licenses were issued by administrative officers for the price of the license and without regard to the fitness of the person and place.

They desired to promote the cause of temperance and regulate liquor and its distribution in harmony with the Brocks High License law system and the numerous reported Court decisions made thereon. The Brooks High License Law system functioned well for the people and the only complaints against it came from those who objected to Judges compelling license holders to operate their places in accordance with decency and good morals.

This system the Governor would not have and demanded that licenses for the sale of beer should be issued in the same manner as a dog license is issued by an administrative officer for the price laid on the counter.

The sponsors believed that there was a great difference between this kind of license and a beer license and declined to surrender what they regarded as just and proper policies for the vain and illusive glory of sponsorship of a bill approved by the Governor.

The Governor was informed that H. B. 1681 had passed both Houses and met with the general approval of the people, both wet and dry, and that he could sign it or veto it as he saw fit, taking unto himself the responsibility for his action

Without much delay, the Governor sent a slanderous veto message to the House, full of "kicks" but without any constructive criticism and without aid to construct a new bill. His intermeddling with the Legislature and his causing to be offered H. Bs. 2093 and 2097 on March 28th, 1933, his failure to submit his desires to the Liquor Control Committee to draft bills, and his veto, have cost Pennsylvania many thousands of dollars and given to the brewers a wonderful Pinchot jubilee.

The unemployed the Governor could have served by approving H. B. 1681, but apparently they were of less importance than his dry cause and his desire to really leave beer uncontrolled, with the hope that it would tempt the people to an intemperate habit and thereby promote his cause to prevent the repeal of the 18th Amendment.

The sponsor of Senate Bill 1450, a member of the Conference Committee on H. B. 1681, innocently believed the Governor's "Bolony"—Al Smith's pet word for political deceit—and offered a new bill exactly like 1681, with Judges cut and County Treasurers in, and marched himself into the Governor's spider-web office for approval and then found that he had only obtained the Governor's disapproval and to gain the Governor's approval, he must take the Governor's whole programme, lack of control, and so amend his bill and take in toto the Governor's dog licensing principles, together with equally vicious and some very ferocious policies.

Senate Bill 1450 was accordingly amended and the whole of the Governor's programme incorporated in it. A careful reading of H. B. 1681 and S. B. 1450 shows that the Governor realizes that his policy is not beneficial to Pennsylvania and in S. B. 1450 and H. B. 2097, he endeavors only slightly to come near the proper policy by loosely substituting the word "reputable individuals" and "reputable corporations" for "fit persons" and "fit places," as defined by numerous Court decisions.

His bills and his amendments show no fixed programme or policy but a continual change as to everything except the dog licensing features and his determined purpose that every brewer must be under the thumb of his Alcohol Permit Board and thereby compelled to obey his every wish and political purpose. His substitution of County Treasurers for his Department of Revenue is only a slight deviation from his intended grip upon the liquor business to make it serve his wishes and political policies.

H. B. 1681 gave no politician control of the liquor business and gave to the Commonwealth a system as free from politics as possible and a liquor business unhampered by politics to continue as long as it promoted temperate drinking and divorced itself from vice and immorality. It gave, by the removal of too much competition, to its licensed holders the opportunity to make a living without being required to resort to improper practices.

Therefore the question is:

Shall this bill be adopted or shall none, as it is apparent the dry Governor and the Democrats control over a one-third vote and can stop any bill. No bill means no license fees and Philadelphia needs license fees for the relief of the unemployed and its distressed taxpayers. The Commonwealth needs brewers' license fees but the Governor's amendments struck them out.

Because of Philadelphia's needs I vote for the bill

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is probaly one of the most important pieces of legislation with which this session has to deal. It involves the regulation of public utilities. This bill contains thirty-nine pages. All of the various pages contain amendments of great importance to the Public Service Company law. It was reported out of committee last night in an amended form. Nobody in this House, in my opinion, has had an opportunity to make a close examination of this bill, because it has just reached our desks. In view of the importance of the legislation and in view of the fact that it is quite voluminous, it seems to me that we should have more opportunity to read over and study this particular piece of legislation.

I do not believe a day's delay will have any material effect upon the final action on this bill, but it does not seem fair to me that the bill should be reported out last night on second reading with the amendments contained therein, and brought to our desks this afternoon and that we should now be asked to vote upon it.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

It was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 133, Printer's No. 554, on page 19 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Hough,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1233, entitled:

An Act to regulate commerce and prevent unfair competition; defining fair prices, prescribing remedies to uphold the same, and providing penalties.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I would like the sponsor of this bill to explain the purpose of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOUGH. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman explain to the House the provisions of this bill?

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill has been on the calendar for the last two months. It has been conimitted and recommitted. After that length of time the gentleman is certainly asking an absurd question. I might ask the gentleman if he has read the bill as yet.

Mr. TAHL. I have, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the truth of the matter is that it comes and hits back at me personally, and that is the reason why I introduced it. I am in the brick and stone business, and in our company we manufacture stuff at a set price, but another party came in and took over another plant and they have been selling at half of what it is costing us, which is an unfair proposition, and that is really the reason why I have a personal interest in this bill. The gentleman's objection seems to be made on behalf of department stores which apparently fear they will be eliminated from this business. In fact, some twenty years ago we used to have small merchants in small localities. We had hardware stores and different kinds of stores. Now, every kind of stores sells everything from soup to nuts and they apparently want to monopolize everything. If we go back to the point where we eliminate this unfair manner of selling below cost, it would be a benefit to the people of the community. That is the reason why I introduced this bill. However, if some one had amendments they wanted to offer to this bill they should have done it before this time. Maybe it is too drastic, but if it is it is up to you. I have my personal feelings in the matter for the simple reason that I don't always want to be a legislator, I want to engage in an honest business. I want to make an honest living in the business I have always been in.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, it is true that the bill provides what the gentleman says it does provide. Is it not a fact that it is up to the court to fix the prices of commodities that are sold in the open market?

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker, it is not up to the court. It is up to the party who feels that he has been discriminated against, that makes the accusation and appeals to the court and if the court finds that it was the fault of the person making the accusation, they have to stand the costs of the prosecution.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman agree with me that under the provisions of this bill it limits the right of a person in business to fix the price at which he can sell his commodities?

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker, it simply makes reference to the fact that it should not be sold below what the same can be produced for, and yet it makes a proviso when the goods become obsolete that you can sell them at whatever figure you see fit.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, the only objection I have to this bill is this: This bill limits the right of any man that is in business to decide for himself how much he should charge for his commodity. In other words, a man in business may have a larger overhead and he may be obliged to charge, say, for a suit of clothes twenty-five dollars, whereas the man who has the lower overhead may be in a position to sell the same suit for twenty-three dollars. The man who sells for twenty-five dollars would be in a position to go into court and ask the court to direct the man who sells for the lesser amount, because his overhead is less, to sell at the same price as he did. It seems to me that that limits the right of a man to do business as he sees fit. I contend that the bill is not constitutional, and for that reason it should be voted down.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, Rule 76 says "No member shall be permitted to record his vote who neglects to vote when his name is first called by the Clerk." Rule 71 says "Every member shall be present within the Hall of the House during its sittings, unless excused by the House, or necessarily prevented, and shall vote on each question put, unless he has a direct personal or pecuniary interest in the determination of such question. If a member refuses to vote, unless he be excused by the House, or unless he be interested, such refusal shall be deemed a contempt."

Which Rule is in force in connection with voting?

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to reply to the parliamentary inquiry of the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews. Rule 76 was read a few moments ago by the gentleman from Cambria for the information of the House.

There has grown up in this body, probably unintentionally, a system whereby a member when his name is called has refused to vote and then many minutes are consumed in correcting the roll. That would be unnecessary if a member voted when his name was called. The Chair has no desire to enforce such a rule and if the rule were to be enforced it would have to come from the members.

Insofar as Rule 71 is concerned, members required to be present and voting, it is the belief of the Chair that this rule was put into effect so that a group of members might not be allowed to refuse to vote, which would prevent the passage of legislation. In other words, that would prevent a constitutional majority either for or against a particular piece of legislation.

The Chair desires to read from Jefferson's Manual 648 and 649 "It has been found impracticable to enforce the provisions which requires every member to vote and the weight of authority always favors the idea that there is no authority in the House to deprive a member of the right to vote, but usually the Speaker has held that the member himself should determine the question and no Speaker at any time has the power to deprive a member of the constitutional right to vote. The House frequently excused members from voting in cases of personal interest." Does that answer the parliamentary inquiry of the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, would objection from the floor of the House, require every member to vote if present in the House?

The SPEAKER. If a member insisted on Rule 76 being enforced the Chair would have no alternative.

BANKING DEPARTMENT REQUESTED TO POSTPONE LIQUIDATING OF LOANS ON PERSONAL PROPERTY, STOCKS, BONDS OR REAL ESTATE HELD BY CLOSED BANKS

Mr. PARKINSON offered the following resolution, which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations:

In the Senate, May 3, 1933.

Whereas, The policy of the United States Government is to adjust the financial structure in such manner that the debtor can more readily pay his obligations; and

Whereas, An inflation movement has been instituted which should increase the value of personal property, stocks, bonds and real estate, to the end that collateral which was considered sound when bank loans were made against them, may once again be so considered; and

Whereas, The withholding of liquidation of such assets will be to the advantage of both debtor and creditor; therefore be it

Resolved, That no personal property, stocks, bonds or real estate shall be sold to liquidate loans from banking institutions that are not closed and in the process of liquidation by the Pennsylvania Department of Banking, unless said property equals the principal and interest of the loan for which it was made, and/or the value for which it was originally accepted by said bank, or unless the debtor expressly assents to a sale for less value; and be it further

Resolved, That such shall be the policy of the Banking Department of Pennsylvania toward the liquidation of closed institutions for a period of one year following the passage of this resolution.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The report was read as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 246

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and the House of Representatives for the purpose of considering Senate Bill No. 246, entitled: "An Act defining the powers of the courts of quarter sessions the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the County Court of Allegheny County with respect to the care guidance control trial placement and commitment of delinquent dependent and neglected children under sixteen years of age and of persons over sixteen years of age contributing to or encouraging the delinquency neglect and dependency of children and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto," respectfully submit the following bill as our report:

CHARLES H. EALY,
CHARLES W. STAUDENMEIER,
JOHN S. RICE,

ARNOLD M. BLUMBERG,
PHILIP STERLING,
MAX J. SPANN,
Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.

Act defining the powers of the courts of quarter sessions the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the County or Juvenile Court of Allegheny County with respect to the care guidance control trial placement and commitment of delinquent dependent and neglected children under sixteen years of age and of persons over sixteen years of age contributing to or encouraging the deliquency neglect and dependency of children and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto

Whereas The welfare of the Commonwealth demands that children should be guarded from association and contact with crime and criminals and the ordinary process of the criminal law does not provide for such care guidance and control as are essential to children in the formative period of life and

Whereas Experience has shown that children lacking proper parental care or guardianship are led into courses of life which may render them liable to the penalties of the criminal law and that the real interests of such children require that they be not incarcerated in jails and penitentiaries as members of the criminal class but be subjected to wise care guidance and control so that evil tendencies may be checked and better instincts be strengthened and

Whereas To these ends it is important that the powers of the courts with respect to the care guidance and control over delinquent neglected and dependent children should be clearly distinguished from those exercised in the ordinary administration of the criminal law therefore

Section 2 This act shall be effective immediately upon its final enactment

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask the Senate to vote down this bill. This act, No. 1476, provides for the taxing of savings for a two-year period, ending in 1935.

Yesterday the Senate adopted the act of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, amending Section 17 of the Act of 1913, making it clear that the passage of the Einstein Bill did not intend to tax, in Section 17 of that act, the savings accounts in banking institutions, and, so that this matter may be on the record, with the permission of the Senate I desire to make this statement: "It is contended that the effect of Senate Bill No. 302, introduced by Senator Einstein on February 6, 1933, and passed and approved by the Governor on April 21, 1933, is to make taxable for State purposes, at the rate of four mills, interest-bearing accounts in banks, banking institutions, saving institutions and trust companies. This bill amends section 1 of the Act of June 17, 1913 (P. L. 507), by inserting after the clause 'Provided that this section shall not apply * * * the following, namely, 'To interest-bearing accounts in any bank or banking institution, saving institution or trust company.' The contention, as we understand it, is that because interest-bearing accounts in banks, etc., are thus exempted from taxation in Section 1 of said Act of 1913 they become automatically liable for tax under the 17th Section of said act, which section imposes tax, at the rate of four mills, on scrip, bonds, certificates and evidences of indebtedness assumed or on which interest is paid by private corporations created either under the laws of this Commonwealth or the laws of any other State or of the United States and doing business in the Commonwealth."

Now, the act introduced by Senator Coyne, and passed by this Senate yesterday, amends Section 17 of the Act of 1913 to make it clear that because of the amendment to Section 1, as adopted and already signed by the Governor, it is not to be construed as transferring liability to the other section.

I noticed in the Philadelphia Inquirer this morning a statement quoted, or authorized, by His Excellency the Governor, which reads as follows: "It should be understood, however, that the pleas of ignorance which a number of members have made in connection with the passing of the Einstein bill are not well founded. The Secretary of Revenue explained to both the Senate and House committees which considered this measure exactly what the effect would be."

Mr. President, I am a member of the Committee on Finance of the Senate, and was present when the Secretary of Revenue appeared before this committee. His good faith in this matter has never been questioned, and is not now questioned. I understand that the Secretary of Revenue does not state that he brought this contention to the attention of the Committee on Finance. The matter which he did bring to the attention of the Committee on Finance was the question of whether the passage of this act would so discriminate between different classes of wealth as to take us out of the provisions of the Federal Act permitting the taxation of national banks; and that, Mr. President, was the only matter brought before the Senate Committee on Finance at that meeting. So I think the record ought to be clear; and the Governor is probably misquoted in the papers when he states the Secretary of Revenue so informed this committee, because, as I say, the Secretary of Revenue does not, as I understand, state that he informed the Committee on Finance on this; and if he did not do it, it was not with any idea of bad faith,—I do not believe that any member of the committee contends it was in bad faith that he did not bring up this matter.

So I say, Mr. President, the bill now before the Senate, Senate Bill No. 1476, is in contravention of the act passed yesterday by this body, Senator Coyne's bill, and would have the effect of bringing about a purpose, with regard to the Einstein Act, which was never thought of when it was adopted.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I have no pride of authorship in this bill, but it was prepared by the Attorney General in an effort to meet the situation which has arisen since the approval by the Governor of the Einstein bill relating to tax on saving fund deposits. Whether we like it or do not like it, we find ourselves in the position of having imposed a tax aggregating eight million dollars in two years on saving fund deposits in all banks, and that eight million dollars has become part of the Governor's budget for relief work. As I understand the bill which was passed, that repeals the Einstein bill to the extent that it takes away from the Governor the eight million dollars which he has agreed upon and placed in his budget for relief work. This bill now under consideration, Senate bill No. 1476, does not repeal it immediately, but it does repeal it at the end of two years. Unless we are in a position to find eight million dollars more of revenue, I believe the Governor will be obliged to veto the bill when and if it reaches his desk. This bill, as I say, will repeal the Einstein bill at the end of two years, and I feel, and I hope that the rest of the Senate may feel, that, bad as it is to have this tax for two years, it is better to have it repealed at the end of two years than to have it go on indefinitely. There seems to be a difference between the doctors as to the effect of the Einstein bill, but our Committee of Finance has been definitely advised by the Attorney General that that bill does impose this tax on banks, and the Governor has likewise been advised, and it has been already estimated that that tax will amount in the biennium to eight million dollars. Therefore I think it is very important, notwithstanding the Coyne bill passed yesterday, that this bill be passed at this time and speeded on its way in order that it may get through by the dying days of the session. And, as I said, I have no pride in authorship, and we have no controversy about the effect of the Einstein bill—that no doubt in due time will be fixed by the courts—but we should pass this bill and put it on the Governor's desk so he will have it before him.

Mr. EINSTEIN. Mr. President, I did not think this bill would make so much trouble, especially after the bill was given to me by some very prominent bankers of the City of Pittsburgh. I want to say to the gentlemen of the Senate that this bill that I presented was put on the Governor's desk. I did not ask the Governor to sign the bill, but I had some very good friends in the Senate, that I asked to speak to Governor Pinchot with regard to it, which they did; and he did not promise to sign it but he told them he would give the matter very careful consideration. I also got some very prominent people in Pittsburgh to interest themselves in behalf of this bill.

I believe the bill I presented was a good bill. I am not an attorney; I am an ordinary layman; but I believe the bill I presented will have to be tested in the courts. While we have had a decision with regard to deposits of gas companies and electric light companies, where it was said they could not attach the four mills tax on those corporations, the Supreme Court said they could. Of course, the Supreme Courts can change their opinion also; and that has been years ago. But the policy of imposing the four mills tax is not a sound policy; the principle is wrong, to tax thrift.

In the Senate of Pennsylvania Senator Mansfield, who is now one of our County Commissioners, introduced a similar bill ten years ago,—the same act, practically, and it did not pass. And at the time when my bill was introduced I solicited Senator Mansfield's support, and he very gladly gave it to me.

In the County of Allegheny the Commissioners issued over 800,000 returns on personal property, in the form of blue slips. They have had returned somewhere close to 600,000. The classes of people who returned these slips were the poor class and the middle class,—people who, years ago, put in money for a rainy day. It was raining then, and it may rain for several more years; and they put it there for the purpose of paying their taxes, the interest on their mortgages and things similar.

Mr. Metzger, Secretary of the Department of Revenue, appeared before the Committee on Finance and made the statement that he was afraid it would affect the national banks, and he would like to confer with Mr. Fertig in regard to the same, as he had not studied the bill thoroughly. I believe Mr. Fertig knows very much more than Mr. Metzger about legislation. There is no doubt about that in my mind. And I want to say that there are other attorneys in Pennsylvania that have their opinion of this bill.

Now, to the bill of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, the Governor made no objection; but our passing this bill shows our weakness, in that we require the payment of these taxes indirectly for a period of two years.

Mr. President, I believe that the bill I presented is a fair bill; and the Governor was glad enough to sign that bill. If he knew at the time, which no doubt he did, that the depositors had to pay this money, he might as well have vetoed it, and then the counties would have had this money; but he did not do that, he signed it.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, this Legislature has gone on record against imposing new taxes against any form of industry in Pennsylvania. It was never the idea of this Legislature in passing the Einstein bill that the tax should be taken off the shoulders of the depositor and placed upon the shoulders of the banks. The banks of this Commonwealth, gentlemen of the Senate and Mr. President, have hard enough time functioning today without putting any additional tax upon them. I am asking the members of the Senate to vote this bill down. It is going to put a burden on the banks that they cannot stand. It is an imposition. And starting with Governor Pinchot, he has no right to say he needs this money or any other money he might raise by taxation. He did not have this eight million dollars before him two weeks ago, and I am asking the members of the Senate to vote "no" on the passage of this bill.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I do not know much about this bill one way or the other, except a lot of members of the Senate feel that they voted on this proposition because they did not understand the Einstein bill. That is their hard luck. We are supposed to know. It is a very fortunate admission to come on the floor of the Senate and say we do not know. I voted for it, and if I did not know what it was, I would not admit it. I am also a director in a bank, and the banks have a tough time, that is true; but if there is anything here in the way to cause a failure to pass this bill, or we are going to in any way interfere with the emergency relief work in Pennsylvania, it is a sad commentary on this Senate. We do not want and should not be placed in a position where we are going to obstruct emergency relief, whether that emergency relief is a programme of this Senate or a programme of the Governor of Pennsylvania. We have all been brought here, and we have all understood that the big proposition before this Legislature was emergency relief. The poor people of this Commonwealth are out with their hands extended begging for bread and milk and for the necessities of life. And, as I said before, I am a director in a bank, and the tax is not going to wreck our bank, and it is only a small bank; and it is not going to wreck the big banks of Pennsylvania. Those of us who are fortunate enough to have any money deposited at any time under any condition ought to have the courage, the humanity, the fellow-feeling for their suffering brethren, and give up a little bit more. It is not going to hurt, it is not going to do anybody any damage, and it is not going to take bread and milk and nutrition away from those who still have some money. Let us be human, let us pay, and if perchance at the end of the year we have to cut out a week or two of our vacation, we can well afford to do it. I do not know just what the meaning of this Buckman bill is, but I say this, let us put all these bills on the desk of the Governor of Pennsylvania; and I care not whether that Governor happens to be Governor Pinchot or who he is, he is just a human being and Governor of Pennsylvania, and let us put them on his desk and charge him with doing the right or the wrong thing. So far as suffering humanity in Pennsylvania and America is concerned, let us in this legislation forget our pocketbooks and work with our hearts.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I have listened attentively to the discussions on this bill and the law under which the four mill tax has been collected. I am opposed to the collection of the four mill tax from the savings bank depositors, and I had hoped when Senator Einstein's bill was placed on the statute books of Pennsylvania that it eliminated the four mill tax, and I am satisfied from what I have been able to learn about the law that it did eliminate it so far as the four mill tax was concerned on personal property. Now, as I understand the law, the four mill tax that would be collected by the State could have been collected had not the Einstein bill been passed. That was made possible by a decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Commonwealth vs. Peoples Gas Company, where a decision was made that where users of gas had a deposit with the gas company and the company paid the depositor interest on that deposit, that put them in the relation of debtor and creditor in computing the tax on the capital stock, so that the tax that the State will collect could have been collected had not the Einstein bill been passed. Now, we are confronted with a condition and not a theory. I had hoped that the bill that was presented by Senator Coyne could be made a law immediately, but I do not believe it can be, inasmuch as not only the Governor but this Republican organization had sat in conference and agreed that the eight million dollars to be collected for this purpose would be calculated in the relief program in the State for the next two years. I voted for Senator Coyne's bill and I am going to vote for Senator Buckman's bill, because, if Senator Coyne's bill is vetoed and we cannot have the tax taken off immediately, I want to be sure it will be taken off as set forth in Senator Buckman's bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, just one word in reply to one of the Senators who seems to indicate, if he did not state, that my bill imposes any tax. This is not a bill imposing a tax on anything. It is clarifying the situation and repealing the tax, which the Attorney General says is already on the banks, at the end of two years. And as was just so well pointed out by the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Mansfield, it is really to take off at the end of two years whatever it would have put on in the interval; and I hope the Senate will have an opportunity to act on it.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would be delighted to be interrogated by the young Senator from Tioga.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, when the Senator makes the statement that the Attorney General has advised the Senate Finance Committee, did he advise the Finance Committee before the bill was passed by the Senate and House or afterwards?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, means the Einstein bill?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the Einstein bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not think the Attorney General ever advised the committee until after it was passed.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, until after it was passed and signed by the Governor?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I submit the sole and only question for the Senate now is as to whether we wish to make it clear as to what our intention was in passing the Einstein bill. I take it there was no dispute when the Einstein bill was passed. It was the intention of the members of this Legislature to remove from taxation the four mill tax on small savings accounts, and that is what most of the savings accounts are, the small savings of our people; and it was with that intention that the Einstein bill was passed. And if that was the intention, I suggest that by the passage of the Coyne bill and the defeat of the Buckman bill we make it clear to the people of Pennsylvania what the intention was; and I repeat the Senate should vote down the Buckman bill, having already adopted the Coyne bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not think it makes any difference whether the individual members of this Senate have the right to say or whether the Governor has the right to say which bill should be passed, because we are in the same position as the man in jail. He said, "I am here." The Governor of Pennsylvania has said he will veto the Coyne bill. I was inclined to vote against this bill of Senator Buckman's, but I think it would be to the interest of Pennsylvania to vote in favor of this bill. Then, when it was called to Senator Einstein's attention that the bill might result in placing a tax upon the bank instead of on the depositors, he expressed himself as not intending to do that. As a matter of fact, he and others have since said the bill does not do that. An attempt to impose the tax on banks instead of on the depositors will raise a Constitutional question, which I think well taken. Hence we find ourselves in the situation, if the Governor is going to veto the Coyne bill and Senator Einstein's bill is unconstitutional, of having placed ourselves in the position of imposing the tax on banking institutions. On that theory I say that Senator Buckman's bill does not create any new tax, but simply says that the tax imposed by this act shall be limited to the period of two years. We ought to pass this bill, because there is no tax imposed on banking institutions. In the Einstein bill there is nothing to worry about, and nothing to worry about in the Buckman bill. If there is no tax, there is nothing to be worried about in the Buckman bill, because it is only to be in existence for two years. I believe the Senate should vote for it.

Mr. EINSTEIN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. EINSTEIN. Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, had a bill that he had stricken off the calendar this morning. Why did he have that bill stricken off?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I did not think my bill would receive any kindlier fate than that of Senator Coyne's. I did not think the Governor would give me any more consideration.

Mr. EINSTEIN. Mr. President, then the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, thinks the Governor will give Senator Coyne more consideration?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not think the Governor will give me more consideration.

Mr. EINSTEIN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, if the members of the committee were not notified by the Attorney General that the banks would have to pay this tax?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not remember that. It was up to third reading when it was called to our attention that it would very likely place the tax on the banks instead of on the depositors.

Mr. EINSTEIN. Mr. President, that is correct. Now Senator Shapiro at that time had some amendments which were handed to me by Dr. Woodward, which I have referred to Senator Pepper, if I am not mistaken, and at that time the bill was looked over by very able attorneys. Senator Woodward had some amendments to offer, and I asked him not to delay the bill in the Senate, and that I would take them over to the House, and the information I received was that Senator Pepper approved them. And naturally having the opinion of men like Senator Pepper and the opinion of attorneys in Pittsburgh, I thought it was worth taking a chance.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not know whether that is the statement, or if it was, the amendment the Senator is talking about was the limitation of the tax on personal property to five thousand dollars; and the Senator was told that was unconstitutional.

Mr. EINSTEIN. Mr. President, I do not think that is right. If Senator Woodward remembers, he gave me amendments, but we were all told, I believe, it is throwing away weeks to pass this bill.

Mr.SORDINO. Mr. President, I would like to interogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, Yes.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, state whether or not his bill which he asked to have stricken from the calendar embodied the provisions of the bill of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, striking this tax off the bank and placing it on the depositor?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, my bill was on the theory and because of the fact that Senator Einstein had given me his ideas, what he intended by the bill, and therefore I prepared the bill so that the Governor would have before him the legislative intent, and since I have been informed the Governor will not sign the Coyne bill, I did not think he would take any more favorable action on my bill.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, this is the point I want to bring out. The bill that Senator Shapiro just asked to have stricken from the calendar carried the provision of the Coyne bill plus a resolution—the preamble was a resolution showing the intent of the Legislature of Pennsylvania to strike this tax from the statute books. Now, through a series of circumstances of which we have no knowledge, it appears that there is a difference of opinion as to whether or not this tax can be collected by the State and the banks be made to pay. Now, are we going to stand here on our feet and say that we, as Senator Salus just said, should leave this matter to the discretion of the Governor? If the Governor is going to do my thinking, I am going to resign. I think we are big enough in this Senate to make decisions for ourselves, and if the Governor vetoes those decisions, all right; but if we say that he is to make decisions for us and help to make my decision, all right, but for my part nothing doing.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I want to corroborate the statement of Senator Einstein, who brought me into it, and Senator Sordoni has made my other remark. I thoroughly agree with them. It seems to me wabbling of the Senate to go on record that it does not impose a tax on the people, and then indirectly for two years imposes the tax. We all know our own minds. I thoroughly agree with what Senator Sordoni said.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, the Einstein theory is not working very well. I did not feel there was any question of the intention of Senator Einstein when he drew this bill or the intention of the Senators when it was passed. Last week there were three bills presented to the Finance Committe, one by Senator Buckman, one by Senator Sordino and one by Senator Coyne. We sent all three to the floor with the intention of having two of the bills recommitted. On Monday afternoon of this week there was a meeting of the Finance Committee, and it was agreed by those present, at least a majority of them, that it would be better to have Senator Coyne's bill amended, and Senator Buckman agreed to take care of Senator Coyne's bill. Nevertheless, we are in this position today: The Governor and his Budget Secretary say that it will be necessary to have the eight million dollars which the Einstein bill gave to the State for revenue, or the budget will not be balanced. The best figures I can get on the budget as it now stands is that we do not need eight million dollars, but at least four or five million dollars. However, the budget will not be balanced unless additional revenue is provided either under this bill or under another piece of legislation. I stated when the Einstein bill was first called to my attention that it would have the effect of placing the tax on the bank. The banks will not pay this tax themselves, but will impose it upon the depositor by reducing the interest rate. We have responsibilities here as members of the General Assembly, and it is not fair or just for us to leave here without a balanced budget. I am sorroy that the situation has come about as it has, because I realize it is going to be a hardship on many of the small depositors, the very idea which Senator Einstein had in his mind to avoid when he presented the Einstein bill. As I said before, it is not going to work, because it is going to be the small depositors who are going to pay these four mills. However, we have the consider the passage of some legislation to provide revenue or leave here with the thought in mind that we have not a balanced budget. I do not think we ought to put these bills on the Governor's desk and permit them to be vetoed or permit him to approve them. We ought to assume our own responsibilities, and if this bill of Senator Buckman's is passed is provides revenue for two years sufficient to balance our budget, and at the same time, in my mind, to affect every small depositor in this State. However, the Einstein bill is a law. It is our thought to adjourn in a few days, and if we intend to stay here and take care of this legislation and pass additional revenue, that could be done.

Mr. REED. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I will only take a moment to explain the vote which I shall cast on this bill. I have always believed in government of the people, for the people and by the people. I do not believe in government of Pinchot, for Pinchot and by Schnader. Therefore I shall vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. EINSTEIN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. EINSTEIN. Mr. President, am I correct in my understanding the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, to say that in conference the $8,000,000 was considered in the budget?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, not in the original budget, but in the budget which was considered last week or the week before and agreed on.

Mr. EINSTEIN. Mr. President, suppose these bankers make a test case, and do not pay the four mills tax; would that affect the $8,000,000 that the Governor desires to be paid by the banks up to 1935? How would that make out in a test case?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, it will; but the opinion of the Attorney General is that this bill is constitutional.

Mr. EINSTEIN. Well, Mr. President, that is his opinion, but what I mean to say is this: Suppose it goes to the Supreme Court, where it may take a year or two years to be decided; how about the $8,000,000? Where do you get the $8,000,000 from?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, the State will not receive the $8,000,000 until the Court declares this bill constitutional; and the $8,000,000 will not be of any use to the unemployed or anybody else.

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

Shall the bill pass finally?
